The James Pettersen tournament as part of the Zone Five Junior Tour is a “match play” event. The best thirty-two junior golfers are selected from the previous year junior order of merit. Matches are scheduled on a rotational basis at zone five golf courses on weekends throughout the month of March / April.

The winner is presented with the James Pettersen Memorial Trophy. The winner and runner-up also receive “Keeper” trophies. Additionally the winner, runner-up, and the Consolation event winner and runner-up receive “gift certificates” entitling them to receive reasonable expenses, incurred in amateur competitions (of their choice) during the current golf year.

The event beginning in 1999, is sponsored by the family of James Petterson, and administered by Dorothy Clarke, and Alfred Pettersen in memory of their departed son, a professional golfer. Dorothy, Alfred and the Pettersen family remember just how expensive it was for an aspiring young golfer and wish to assist other hopefuls with financial support.

James Pettersen was born January 12, 1965 in Victoria, B.C. James attended local schools and graduated from Oak Bay High School. He played hockey at the Victoria Racquet Club with Russ Courtnall and was a junior member of Uplands Golf Club. Throughout his life, James worked at different vocations but always kept in the back of his mind his dream of becoming a professional golfer. James also played out of Olympic View Golf Club and with the encouragement of longtime golf pro and friend Dave Campbell, his cousin Michael Essery, and with strategy coaching from Vic Lindal; James finally put his skills to the test and became a professional golfer on October 4, 1996 in Innisfail, Alberta. In November 1996, he entered the Rocky Mountain Tour in the Palm Desert area of California. Unfortunately, he died of a massive heart attack two days before entering the third tournament of the tour.
